Pass through the historic area of the city, where many of the wonderful houses of the 20th century “rubber barons,” including the famous Casa de Fierro (the Iron House) are located. Afterwards, visit the Manatee Rescue Center, a fantastic project committed to saving orphaned manatees and reintroducing them into the wild. Learn about their importance to the world’s ecosystem, and why manatees are critically endangered in this part of the Amazon. Around 5 pm, board The Amazon Star and set sail for the rainforest! Once on board, participate in an orientation and safety overview followed by a welcome dinner and a briefing on next day’s activities. Please note: the cruise itinerary is subject to change without prior notice. *Overnight aboard The Amazon Star. morning train to Ollanta, arriving in time for lunch. After lunch visit the Ollantaytambo ruins, gaining a glimpse at the engineering ingenuity of the Inca. Transfer to Cusco and have dinner at the hotel this evening. Overnight at Hotel Costa de Sol. (BLD)

DAY 11 - CUSCO

After breakfast visit the impressive Sacsayhuaman ruins. The stone fortress at Sacsayhuaman forms the head of the Puma design of old Cusco. It's construction remains a mystery as the stones used are not found in the region and most of the blocks weigh more than a ton, the largest weighs in at more than 300 tons. Sacsayhuaman was constructed out of huge polygonal blocks that interlock with one another so precisely a knife blade cannot be inserted between them. Next, tour Kenko, an Incan archaeological site located a few miles from Cusco. Due to the lack of written records from the time period, the purpose of many Incan ruins remains unknown. Though, archaeological evidence shows that the Inca built the site as a "huaca" or holy site and researchers speculate that death rituals, mummification, and human sacrifice were practiced here. The last stop of the day is Tambomachay. This Inca site was used as a spa for Inca political elite; aqueducts and canals channel water from a nearby thermal spring into waterfalls that cascade into a small pool. Have Lunch at a local restaurant featuring typical Cusqueño fare. Regroup at the hotel before dinner for a presentation given by a local expert on the history of Incan and Andean musical instruments then attend a farewell dinner with folklore at local restaurant. Overnight at Hotel Costa de Sol. (BLD)

DAY 12 - DEPART

Spend the morning exploring colonial Cusco including a visit to the Koricancha Temple and the Cathedral Complex. Have lunch at a local café in the main plaza surrounded by views of the colonial architecture of the city. Enjoy some free time in the afternoon, before transferring to the Cusco airport for the late afternoon flight back to Lima. Upon arrival in Lima, check in for your international flight. (BL)
