COSTA RICA

PHOTOGRAPHY IN THE CLOUD FORESTS OF COSTA RICA

with Jackie Kramer | March 19 – 25, 2022

PLUS OPTIONAL RAINFOREST EXTENSION, MARCH 25 – 29, 2022

Whether a you're a master photographer or an enthusiastic amateur, the incredible biodiversity and natural beauty of Costa Rica is certain to inspire a portfolio full of treasures. Accompanied by avid floral photographer and photographic teacher Jackie Kramer, receive personal instruction while capturing the wonder of tropical plants, insects, amphibians, birds, and mammals. Costa Rica's lush cloud forests are the perfect backdrop to practice macro photography with colorful orchids, fungi, and bromeliads and to discover how shutter speed impacts shots of fast-moving objects at the hummingbird feeders. Enjoy the vibrant flora and fauna of Costa Rica while bringing your photography to the next level!

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Sharpen your photographic skills while enjoying guidance by master photographer Jackie Kramer.
- Spend time at Else Kientzler Botanical Garden, Batsú Gardens, and in the gardens of Hotel Bougainvillea for opportunities to shoot some amazing floral photography.
- Seek out a variety of subjects, including the beautiful Resplendent Quetzal, on the private cloud forest trails of Savegre Hotel's reserve.
- Explore temperate forest and páramo vegetation at Cerro de la Muerte, one of the highest peaks in the Talamanca Mountains.

ITINERARY

BLD = BREAKFAST, LUNCH, DINNER

MARCH 19 - SANTO DOMINGO

Upon arrival at the San José International Airport, after clearing customs and collecting your luggage, you will be met and transferred to Hotel Bougainvillea. Hotel check-in is available at 3 pm. This evening, gather for a program orientation and welcome dinner at your hotel. Overnight at Hotel Bougainvillea. (D)

MARCH 20 - SANTO DOMINGO

This morning, transfer to Else Kientzler Botanical Garden. This private garden features more than 2,000 species including collections of palms, orchids, gingers, fruit trees, succulents, and a children's garden. Return to the hotel to enjoy the beautiful gardens on the property and photograph the many flowering species of tropical flora. The hotel's owner, an advocate for the flora of Costa Rica, designed the garden's 10 acres of tropical plants, crops, frog ponds, and walkways. Afterward, Jackie will be available to go over editing techniques in the conference room. Overnight at Hotel Bougainvillea. (BLD)

MARCH 21 - SAN GERARDO DE DOTA

After breakfast, check out and travel to Cerro de la Muerte, one of the highest peaks in the Talamanca Mountains. This area is famous for its diversity of endemic wildlife. Consisting of temperate forest and páramo habitats, the natural vegetation attracts an immense amount of bird life such as the rare Red-fronted Parrotlet and the photogenic Resplendent Quetzal. Enjoy a traditional lunch en route and continue the journey to the cloud forest realm. Upon arrival at the lodge, take some time to visit the hummingbird feeders in front of reception and off the balcony of the lounge. The feeders are often active with resident Talamanca Hummingbird, Lesser Violetear, Gray-tailed Mountain-gem, Volcano Hummingbird, and tiny Scintillant Hummingbird. Overnight at Savegre Hotel Natural Reserve and Spa. (BLD)

MARCH 22 - SAN GERARDO DE DOTA

Spend the morning exploring Savegre's trails, which wind through mostly virgin forest and provide opportunities for photographing hundred-year-old trees, multicolored plants, fungi, insects, amphibians, and mammals. Altitudes vary from 7,220 to 11,384 feet. Savegre is a paradise for birders and known as one of the best places in the country to observe the Resplendent Quetzal. During your stay, you will have ample chances to photograph hummingbirds.

In the afternoon, visit Miriam's Quetzals, a local gem for bird photography. Overnight at Savegre Hotel Natural Reserve and Spa. (BLD)

MARCH 23 - SAN GERARDO DE DOTA

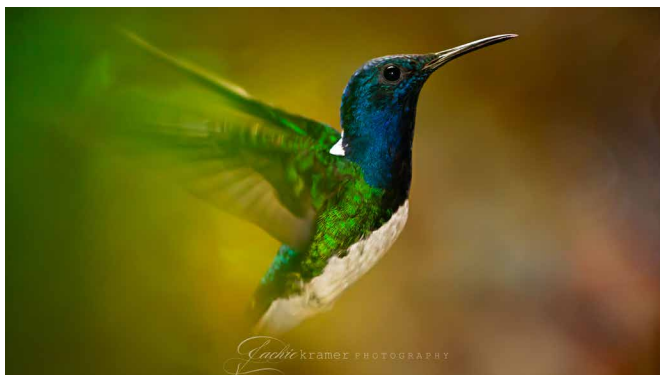

This morning visit Batsú Gardens. The garden has a short private trail leading through primary oak forest and natural perching areas ideal for bird photography. Afterwards, return to the hotel for lunch and enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure in the cloud forest. You may wish to take the trail to the local waterfalls in the area, or arrange a relaxing treatment at the on-site spa (at additional cost; pricing available at reception). Overnight at Savegre Hotel Natural Reserve and Spa. (BLD)

MARCH 24 - SANTO DOMINGO

This morning, have breakfast at the hotel and then head back to Santo Domingo and Hotel Bougainvillea. After lunch at the hotel, you'll have the afternoon to get in some final photographs around the hotel grounds. Enjoy a delicious farewell dinner this evening. Overnight at Hotel Bougainvillea. (BLD)

MARCH 25 - DEPARTURE/POST EXTENSION

This morning, transfer to the international airport for flights home, or be picked up after breakfast to begin your post-trip extension to Selva Verde Lodge in the rainforests of the Sarapiquí Valley. (B)

ABOUT YOUR LEADER

Jackie Kramer

Jackie has been photographing the natural world, with an emphasis on flowers, since high school. She has won awards from the International Garden Photographer of the Year (IGPOTY), the Jacksonville Professional Photographers Guild, the Professional Photographers of America International Photographic Competition, and others. She has been published in numerous magazines and journals. Jackie's support of other photographers is evidenced by her commitment to her Facebook group, "Phlorography - Artistic Floral Photography," with thousands of active members from around the world. In Phlorography, although floral photography may be the primary focus, it is the relationships that are built and lives enriched, which make it a truly unique community.
